

Guilford County NC Pre-K Application Process

Application Submission

Fill out the online application at www.guilfordchildren.org. Upload required documents* with application.
OR
Print a copy, request an application to be mailed, or pick up at the Guilford County Partnership for Children. Printed applications along with required documents* must be mailed to or dropped off at the Partnership for Children.

Application Processing

If your application is submitted with all required documents* and your child is NC Pre-K eligible, an NC Pre-K Specialist will mark it as complete. If you have a Guilford County School choice, you will receive an email within 4-6 weeks from gcs-prek@gcsnc.com to complete a required online questionnaire.

If your application is complete and your child is not NC Pre-K eligible, a Guilford County Schools pre-k specialist will contact you.

If your application is not complete, an NC Pre-K Specialist will contact you.

Site Assignment

If your first choice is a private or Head Start site, placement will begin in May 2023. Children are prioritized by income and other factors.

If your first or second choice is a GCS school, placement will begin in July 2023. Children are prioritized by overall needs of the child.

Family Notification

Child Care & Head Start
Families will be notified by mail in May for every child offered placement. Letters will include a date for return, and they must be completed with initials and parent signatures.

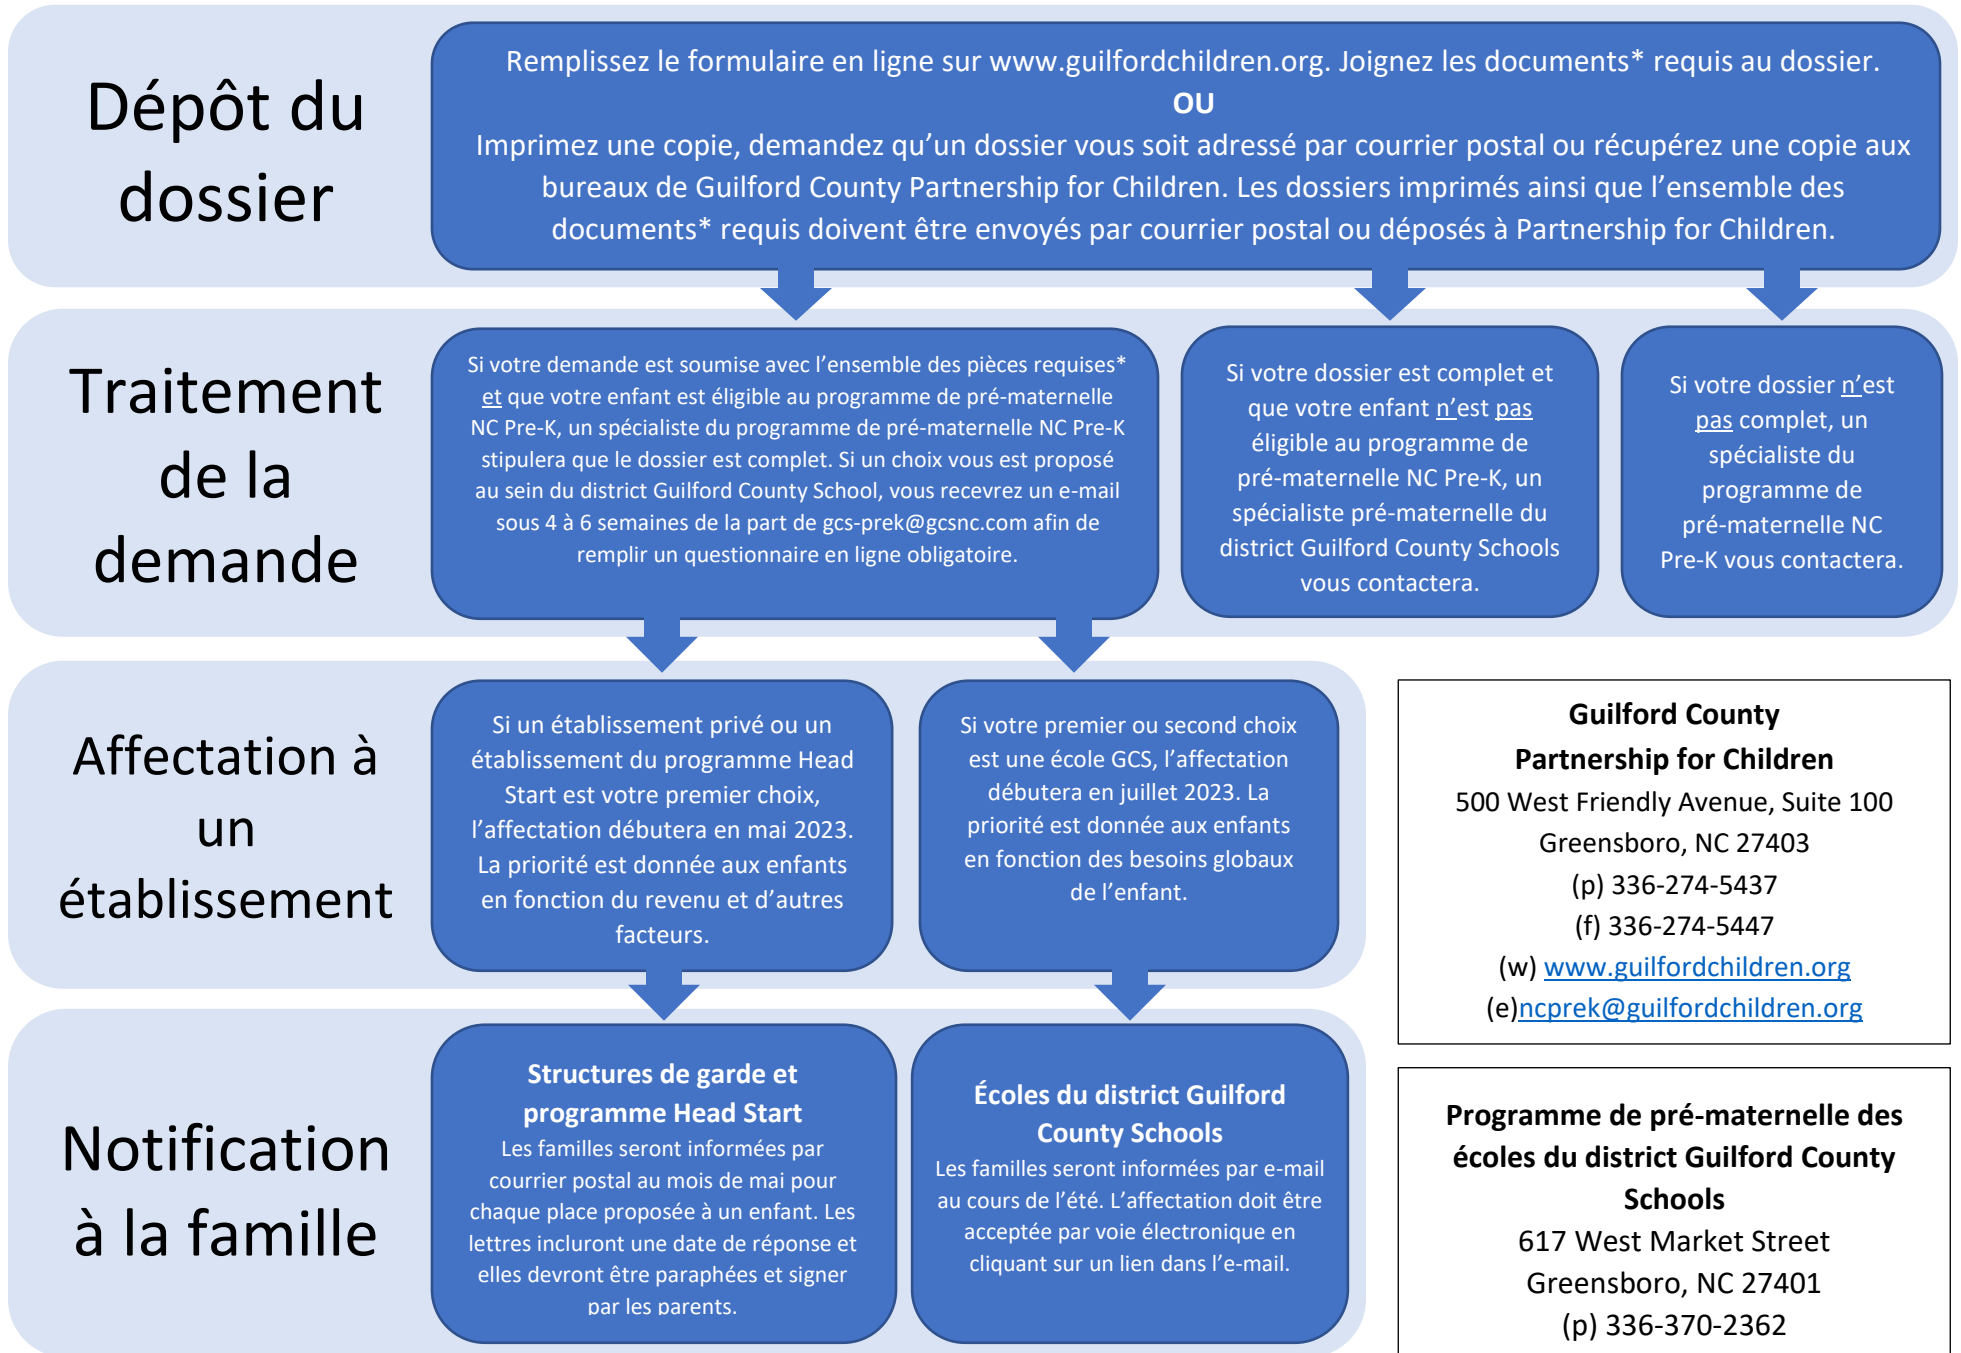

Guilford County Schools
